You Can Help Your Marriage – Do you feel alone? Are you frustrated or angry with each other? Do you argue ... or have you just stopped talking to each other? Does talking about it only make it worse? Retrouvaille (pronounced retro-vi with a long i) helps couples through difficult times in their marriages. This program has helped thousands of couples experiencing difficulties in their marriage. For confidential information about or to register for the January program beginning with a weekend on Jan 30, 2015 call 270- 683-1545 ext 346 or email: satkv59@gmail.com or visit the web site at www.retrouvaille.org.

A Good Example: Archbishop Blase Cupich, who will succeed Chicago Cardinal Francis George in mid-November, has decided he will live in the rectory at Holy Name Cathedral. Cupich decided not to live in what's known as the Cardinal's Mansion in the Gold Coast, which is worth more than $14 million. He wanted to live in a place where he can be most effective in serving the people. The location also provides easy access to his office.

REFLECTIONS ON TODAY'S READINGS:

Exodus 22: 20-26: As we see in the first reading from the Book of Exodus, after the Ten Commandments were given to Moses, God spelled out other ways in which the Israelites should live the covenant. These individual laws give clear guidance on relating to God and others. They also carry a threat of punishment for those who ignore the needy. Aliens, widows, orphans, and poor debtors are to be treated with compassion. If their cries for help are not answered, God says, "I will surely hear their cry." This reading erases any doubt about how important it is to treat those in need with compassion, understanding their suffering and taking action to change what is causing it.

1 Thessalonians 11:5-10: In this reading St. Paul is filled with gratitude that the new Christians of Thessalonica are following his example. They are not keeping the faith to themselves. They are imitating Paul by letting the gospel echo from their lives for all to hear. The students have become the teachers.

Matthew 22:34-40: When you heard the Pharisee's question to Jesus, did you know what the answer would be? If not, now would be a good time to learn the answer by heart. Which is the greatest commandment? Jesus quotes the law of love in two parts. First we must love God with our entire selves. Out of that love of God grows the love of others. We must love our neighbors with as much care and concern as we have for ourselves. Does it seem very easy to love? As we try to do it, we will find it can be very difficult.
