This Week at St. John

Tue 5:00 pm Mass

Holy Communion: As God fed our ancestors in the desert on their pilgrimage, so God gives us food for our journey. We approach the minister who offers the Eucharistic bread with the words "The Body of Christ." We respond, "Amen." We move to the minister with the chalice who gives it to us, saying, "The Blood of Christ," to which we again profess, "Amen."

During the procession, we usually sing a hymn that unites our voices and minds as the Body and Blood of Christ unites us into the body of Christ. Then we pray silently, thanking and praising God and asking for all this sacrament promises. The priest unites our prayers in the prayer after communion to which we respond, "Amen."

Commissioning: We prepare to go back to the world in which we live. Strengthened by this Eucharist, we're better prepared to take up the burdens of our daily lives.

There may be some announcements reminding us of activities coming up in the parish. The priest again says, "The Lord be with you" – the ritual phrase serves now as a farewell.

We bow our heads to receive a blessing. As the priest names the Trinity – Father, Son, and Holy Spirit – we make the Sign of the Cross. The priest or deacon then dismisses the assembly: "Go in peace." We give our liturgical "yes" by saying, "Thanks be to God."

We leave the assembly and the church building – but we carry something with us.

What happens in our lives during the week gives deeper meaning to the ritual action we've celebrated at Mass, whether it's family, work with the poor, or just plain work. It's only in relation to our daily lives that the full meaning of the ritual actions of the Mass become clear to us.

In This Year of Mercy Give Generously to the Disciples Response Fund. As you know, we are implementing a new way to increase support of the Disciples Response Fund and to assist our parish by returning to us 50% of all funds raised over our target. Support of the work of our Diocese is important. There are many things that even the largest parishes cannot do on their own. For example, the Disciples Response Fund puts money into an endowment for the care of retired priests. Also, the fund assists with the expenses for the education of our seminarians. Pope Francis has designated 2016 as a "Year of Mercy". He instructs us to open our hearts. The Diocese helps to make God's mercy present throughout Western Kentucky. If you received a letter from Bishop Medley asking for your support of the DRF, please make a generous gift today.

RCIA-JOURNEY OF FAITH: Just a reminder, if you are interested in learning more about the Catholic faith, joining the Church, or are already Catholic and would like to review the basics of Catholicism, we would like to invite you to join us!! Classes are held every Thursday at 6:00 p.m. in the St. Joseph Parish Hall. All are welcome!!

Our schedule for October is as follows:

October 13, 2016	Places in Catholic Church (Church Tour)
October 20, 2016	Mary
October 27, 2016	The Saints

Teach Us How to Pray: Every human being has inner needs or anxieties. People who are believers tend to take such concerns to God. We call that communication or talking with our Creator prayer: a friend speaking with a friend in a conversation often about friends, family, or other matters. Prayer allows us to enrich our love relationship to God and to each other.

The major responsibilities are participating at Mass on Sundays. In public, liturgical prayer, Church members gather together and worship in a formal way according to official approved rites and texts. The Church, however, also provides an enormously rich range of alternatives for personal, individualized prayer.

Every Catholic is free to choose whatever style is comfortable. These include, for example, formal or informal prayer, the rosary, novenas (nine successive days of prayer for various reasons), and devotional candles (lit to show honor and call one to prayer).
